Just imagine what we can do for you!

Our story

I was studying Mathematics when I discovered my passion for floral design when I was introduced to IKEBANA, the ancient Japanese art of flower arrangement. It changed the course of my life. I found floral design to be so deep, so rich, and so endless that it became my life.

My passion for science blossomed into an obsession with flowers. I went on to earn a Master's degree in IKEBANA in addition to Bachelors in Mathematics. My husband and I fell in love with Cancun so we decided to move here. Soon after we settled, Hurricane Wilma struck. We lost nearly everything and even though we were strangers here, a local family took us in. They gave us food, shelter and hope. The father encouraged us to not give up, "The worst is over," he said, "If you stay, things can only get better." And they did. Wilma destroyed great parts of Cancun's hotel infrastructure. Many jobs were lost and people started to panic. Many gave up and left, thinking it was all over. But to us it was just the beginning. Our neighbors helped us restore our small town house. They smiled as they helped us clear out the dirt, water and tree branches. The good people of Cancun helped us and gave us hope.

Years have passed since then but still we wake up remembering it is time to give back. We want to make Cancun and Riviera Maya even more beautiful and wonderful so today we do that thought our wedding décor and floral design.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

YOUR CONCEPT, YOUR STYLE, YOUR VISION

As a destination couple is pretty easy to feel overwhelmed by all decisions you are facing and bringing the right wedding providers on board. I want to make the process easy for you by highlighting what truly makes us different. If trust and commitment to services is what you are looking for, then I invite you to explore our services.

Myself having a Master degree in floral art and an obsession to organize all surrounding me, I created a simple and clear process to help couples identify their concept and style.

I have created an organize process to pull all the décor pieces together including furniture, accessories and flowers.

I researched ways to get things non available in Cancun, and found ways where couples could ship to my atelier and store things they want to bring from their cities without spending a fortune on shipping.

I improved follow up systems so that couples feel relaxed instead of frustrated about what the process is all about.

So today, we offer all wedding décor elements with a stress free planning process were couples can enjoy the planning process without feeling overwhelmed.

"Choosing to work with Saku at Latin Asia was one of the best decisions I made while planning our wedding. I highly recommend her services. I loved all her work from my rehearsal dinner centerpieces, to the bouquets, the ceremony flowers, and the amazing reception centerpieces. I absolutely loved the centerpieces; they were even more beautiful in person" JENNIFER GONZALEZ

“We had the wedding of a lifetime and unlike many other brides and grooms, were able to enjoy every minute of it. This was due to the vendors we worked with. They made our lives incredibly easy throughout the process. Saku from Latin Asia, her husband, Masato and the entire staff of Latin Asia made our day so memorable for us. They were an absolute pleasure to work with. We spent a lot of time, having regular conversations with Saku during the planning process. She never said she couldn't do anything for us. She was so personable, so accomodating and the outcome of all the work she did for us was EXACTLY what we were looking for. My husband and I are of east indian descent so we had several requests for her that were culturally related. She was able to fulfill ALL of our wishes and the results were impeccable! We cannot thank you enough, Saku!

We recommend her to anyone that is thinking of getting married in the area. It is not worth going elsewhere!”
